UNVEILING THE VISION: OURIC CONCEPTUALISED

In April 2000, the OUR recognised the need to effectively manage its growing collection of critical documents. This vision gave rise to continuous efforts to organise these materials in a space, known at the time as the OUR Library.

SAY HELLO TO OURIC! THE BIRTH OF A REGULATORY LIBRARY

With continuous upgrading and financial assistance from the Japanese Government/ UNDP 2000 - 2003 the Library was re-named the Office of Utilities Regulation's Information Centre (OURIC) and was officially opened on October 16, 2003. In attendance were the Japanese Ambassador, His Excellency Hiroshi Sakurai, and Mr. Bartholomew Nyarko Mensah, the Deputy Resident Representative of the UNDP. The office had the expressed vision of positioning OURIC as a regional information centre on regulatory issues.
